Divisional Departments
The Center for America’s Veterans is an on-campus resource center that provides support for veterans, service members, and dependents through a variety of programs including scholarship assistance and transition programs.

veterans.msstate.edu

The Center for Student Activities, located on the 3rd floor of the Union, is the perfect place for any student looking to get involved. Whether a student is interested in some of the hundreds of organizations already established on campus or starting a brand new organization, the Center for Student Activities is the place to go.

union.msstate.edu/student-activities

The Colvard Student Union is your one-stop shop on campus. The Union is home to multiple campus offices, convention spaces and ballrooms, 7 dining options, an ATM hub, an art gallery, and even a hair salon. The Union is a great place to host an event or just hang out between classes.

union.msstate.edu

The Dean of Students Office is located in 608 Allen Hall and is available to students and parents with any university concerns. If there is a campus issue including student advocacy, legal issues, traffic and parking concerns, assault and misconduct, or any other campus related issue, students and parents are encouraged to contact the Dean of Students Office.

students.msstate.edu
Dining Services offers 21 dining options around campus. With a variety of meal plans available, eating on campus during a busy day of classes is easy. Dining Services offers fresh, nutritious options in all of their dining locations to help students stay happy and healthy.

dining.msstate.edu

Disability Support Services (DSS) provides accommodations for students that are appropriate for their documented disabilities. DSS encourages contact with instructors to ensure that a student’s education is a top priority. The ACCESS program’s goal is to promote a successful transition of students with intellectual disability into higher education.

sss.msstate.edu/disabilities
sss.msstate.edu/access

The Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life houses 33 groups. These groups promote leadership, community service around campus and in Starkville, and social activity. All fraternity and sorority chapters focus on academics and require high GPAs from their members.

greeks.msstate.edu

Health Promotion and Wellness at Mississippi State covers a wide variety of programs including general health, nutrition, sexual health, mental health, relationship violence, alcohol and drugs, tobacco cessation treatment, and exercise. They also work with MSU on the Move which promotes students, faculty, and staff to get up and get active and live a healthy lifestyle.

health.msstate.edu/health
Holmes Cultural Diversity Center provides opportunities to get involved with multiple diverse organizations targeted to enrich the cultural experience for students at Mississippi State University. With twelve student organizations and multiple events throughout the year, Holmes Cultural Diversity Center allows students to get involved with new and exciting experiences.

hcdc.msstate.edu

The Mississippi State Student Honor Code was created to reduce academic misconduct and encourage honesty and integrity. The Honor Code Office is located in 608 Allen Hall and strives to enforce the Honor Code to all students, faculty, and staff. If you have suspicions of academic misconduct, contact the Student Honor Code Office.

honorcode.msstate.edu

With 17 unique residence halls, anyone can find their perfect place within Housing and Residence Life. Living on-campus provides an experience that will last a lifetime in a place students can call all their own. Apply today to find your home away from home.

housing.msstate.edu

The Office of Student Leadership & Community Engagement provides leadership opportunities for the students of MSU. Their goal is to educate, enlighten, and empower the leaders of tomorrow. Leadership programs include LeaderSTATE, Day One Leadership Community, & Montgomery Leadership Program.

slce.msstate.edu
The Longest Student Health Center provides student support through accessible, on-campus medical care. The health center provides a wide variety of services including pharmacy, allergy clinic, lab testing, physical therapy, vaccines for international travelers, X-ray, health education, women’s health, and nutrition consultations.

health.msstate.edu/healthcenter

The Maroon Volunteer Center (MVC) is a one-stop shop for students who want to be involved by volunteering on campus and in the local community. The MVC matches volunteers with various partners; most of which are located on the Mississippi State shuttle route so travel is no issue.

mvc.msstate.edu

Barnes & Noble at Mississippi State is the place to go for all of your campus and classroom needs. Students can find anything from textbooks needed for class to the latest MSU gear to get in the spirit on game day. They even price-match textbooks. Barnes and Noble is conveniently located on campus next to Davis Wade Stadium.

msstate.bncollege.com

Parent Services has one ultimate goal: to assist parents with any questions or concerns they may have regarding their student. The office assists families in fully understanding and navigating the many campus resources, providing timely communications, and promoting meaningful parental involvement that allows for optimum student development and success.

parents.msstate.edu
The Office of Planning & Assessment plays a leading role in the development of comprehensive assessment programs to continuously improve student programs and services and enhance student learning. The office coordinates the strategic planning efforts and provides a clearinghouse for collaboration, innovation, and excellence.

assessment@saffairs.msstate.edu

The Office of Student Conduct is responsible for addressing individual and organizational misconduct. Their focus is ensuring that students practice fairness, civility, and personal responsibility. The Office of Student Conduct is located in 608 Allen Hall.

students.msstate.edu/studentconduct

Student Counseling Services (SCS) provides students opportunities to speak confidentially with professional counselors to help students grow academically and personally. SCS provides students means to succeed in higher education through services including advocacy, counseling, and guidance. Their office is located in Hathorn Hall.

health.msstate.edu/scs

Student Support Services (SSS) consists of Disability Support Services (DSS), the ACCESS Program, and The TRIO Program. The TRIO Program provides services to students who are first-generation or low-income to ensure that they achieve their academic goals. SSS also provides students with testing accommodations.

sss.msstate.edu
University Recreation provides programs and facilities to students who want to live an active and healthy lifestyle. Recreational activities take place at the Joe Frank Sanderson Center, RecPlex, Chadwick Lake, and Sawyer Tennis Courts. Examples of services offered are Outdoor Adventure Trips, Exercise Classes, Aquatics, and more.

recsports.msstate.edu

The University Police Department is a group of professionals who aspire to keep Mississippi State University safe. They are available throughout the year, twenty-four hours a day. The University Police Department offers services such as bike patrol, bully patrol, campus escorts, sexual assault services, and community crime prevention.

police.msstate.edu

University Recreation provides programs and facilities to students who want to live an active and healthy lifestyle. Recreational activities take place at the Joe Frank Sanderson Center, RecPlex, Chadwick Lake, and Sawyer Tennis Courts. Examples of services offered are Outdoor Adventure Trips, Exercise Classes, Aquatics, and more.

recsports.msstate.edu

The Vice President’s office supports all the offices within the division through leadership and support backed by our mission of engaging all students through programs, services, facilities, and activities designed to promote active citizenship, learning, well-being, and success.

saffairs.msstate.edu

Computer-Based Testing Services allows students to access and take national standardized tests on campus. This testing is held in the basement of Rice Hall. Testing Services offers a wide variety of tests while promoting honesty, integrity, and fairness to all students.

cbt.msstate.edu

Testing Services 662.325.6610

University Police 662.325.2121

University Recreation 662.325.7529

Vice President for Student Affairs 662.325.3045
CONTACT US

Division of Student Affairs
Mississippi State University
marketing@saffairs.msstate.edu 662.325.3045
saffairs.msstate.edu