

Graduate Assistantship Position Available in the Department of Technology, Leadership, & Design at Mississippi State University

The Department of Technology, Leadership & Design at Mississippi State University invites applications for a graduate assistantship.

We encourage creative, independent, and motivated applicants with interests in community college leadership, industrial technology, instructional design, or workforce development to apply. The assistantship is a one-year appointment and includes a $10,800 annual stipend (9-month), tuition waiver, and health insurance. The preferred start date is Fall 2026.

Required Qualifications

Bachelor's degree in industrial technology, instructional design, workforce development or a closely related field

Demonstrated excellence in written and oral English communication skills

Proficiency in MS-Office and Canvas

Preferred Qualifications

Strong interest in problem-solving and data analysis

Experience or interest in web site design and/or computer programming (e.g., Python, R)

Experience or interest in creating social media content

Information about the Department of Technology, Leadership, & Design, Mississippi State University as well as admissions criteria can be found at <https://www.tld.msstate.edu/> and <http://www.grad.msstate.edu/>. Interested candidates should contact Dr. Vance Durrington by emailing a letter of interest, updated CV, undergraduate transcripts, and contact information for two references at vance.durrington@msstate.edu. Successful applicants will also be required to apply to the Graduate School at Mississippi State University and be enrolled in a minimum of 9 credit hours each semester. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Mississippi State University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, ethnicity, gender, religion, national origin, disability, age, sexual orientation, genetic information, pregnancy, gender identity, veteran status, or any other status protected by the law.